1. ORBA Co. uses personal information for the purpose of providing services via the Website.

2. Navigation data may be used to ensure the Users with improved service, statistical data analysis and adjustment of the Service to the Users' preferences, administering the Service and also to adapt ads on the websites of the Service to the Users' display.

Article 3 - Cookies mechanism, IP address

1. The Website uses small files called cookies. They are recorded by ORBA Co. Website on a computer of a visitor to the Website, if a web browser allows so. A cookie file usually contains the name of the domain where it comes from, its expiry time and an individual random number that identifies such a file. Information collected by means of such type of files enables adjustment of services offered by ORBA Co. to the individual preferences and the actual needs of visitors to the Website. It also gives an opportunity to work out general statistics of hits into information presented on the Website.

2. ORBA Co. uses two types of cookie files:

1. Session cookie: recorded information is deleted from the memory of a device after the end of a session of a given web browser or after a computer is turned off. The session cookie mechanism does not allow for collection of any personal data and other confidential information from a User's computer.

2. Persistent cookies: these are stored on the User's computer hard disk until their removal.

3. ORBA Co. uses its own cookies for:

1. analyzing and auditing the audience, and in particular creating anonymous statistics that help ORBA Co. to understand how the Service Users benefit from the websites of the Service, which enables the improvement of their structure and content.

4. ORBA Co. uses external cookies to:

1. collection of general and anonymous statistic data through Google Analytics analysis tools (external cookies administrator: Google Inc., based in U.S.);

2. presenting on the Website map, indicating the location of the office ORBA Co. using maps.google.com website (external cookies administrator: Google Inc., based in the USA);

3. to present the Certificate Trusted Regulations through the Service rzetelnyregulamin.pl (external cookies administrator Rzetelna Grupa Sp. z o.o. with its registered office Warsaw, Poland).

5. The cookie mechanism is safe for the computers of the Website's Users. In particular, this way does not provide the possibility for viruses or other unwanted or malicious software to enter your computers. Nevertheless, Users have an option in their web browsers to limit or switch off the access of cookie files to their computers. If you use this option, you may still use the Website except for functions that, due to their nature, require cookies.

6. Below you can find how to change the settings for web browsers on the use of cookies:

1. Internet Explorer;
2. Mozilla Firefox;
3. Chrome;
4. Safari;
5. Opera.

2. ORBA Co. may collect your IP address. An IP address is a number assigned to the computer of a website visitor by your ISP. The IP number allows you to access the Internet. In most cases, the computer is assigned dynamically, i.e. it changes every time you connect to the Internet and therefore is widely regarded as non-personally identifying information. The IP address is used by ORBA Co. in diagnosing technical problems with the server, creating a statistical analysis (e.g. determining regions from which we note the most visits), as information useful in administering and improving the Website, as well as for security purposes and the possible identification of aggravating server-unwanted automatic programmes for viewing the Website content.

3. The Website contains links and hyperlinks to other web pages. ORBA Co. shall not be responsible for privacy policies in force therein. Therefore, if you go through the Website to a page managed by another administrator, we encourage you to acknowledge the privacy policy adopted therein.

Article 4 - Access to data and Protection

1. Personal information in ORBA Co. is protected in compliance with the Act on Personal Data Protection of 29 August 1997.

2. Only authorized employees of ORBA Co. have access to personal information collected by the Website.

3. ORBA Co. provides the Users who have their accounts with uninterrupted access to their data and the possibility of their modification at any time. In order to modify data, a User should log into his/her Account at the Website.

4. ORBA Co. shall allow removal of personal data from the data set, in particular if the User Account is deleted. ORBA Co. may refuse to remove personal data if the User violates applicable law, and keeping the personal data is necessary to explain the circumstances and determine the liability of the User.

Article 5 - Amendments to the Privacy Policy

1. The Privacy Policy may change and ORBA Co. will inform the Users 7 days in advance.

2. Please send all additional questions related to the Privacy Policy to: info@orba.co.

3. Date of the last amendment: 18.12.2020.
